

Veterans Day Breakfast

Written by Administrator

Monday, 06 December 2010 14:41

The senior center held its annual Veterans Day breakfast last week. Joseph Dent, who served in the Army during World War II, was awarded the town's Veteran of the Year at the event.

Joseph Dent, who served in the Army during World War II, was awarded Hebron's Veteran of the Year at the annual Veterans Day breakfast held at the senior center.

See more photos on the Norwich Bulletin's website.